

To be completed by the student

To obtain your form I-20 and to request a student visa, you must certify that you have available financial resources to support a full course of study for one academic year. The U.S. Department of Homeland Security requires that a student be enrolled full-time to maintain student status. Tuition differentials vary by graduate program as do fees, below is an estimated cost of attendance.

GRADUATE	(Estimated based on 9 credit hours per semester for one academic year.)
Tuition & Fees - full time	US $	24,012.00*
Room	US $	8,395.00
Meals	US $	4,800.00
Books & Supplies	US $	1,500.00
Medical Insurance	US $	3,606.00
Personal Expenses	US $	3,400.00
Total Minimum Budget	US $	45,713.00

F-1 visa holders are assessed a $300 international student fee each semester which is included in this figure. The fee is charged to aid in visa compliance support, international student programming, advocacy and general enrollment support from admission up to 36 months beyond graduation for those who participate in the OPT employment benefit, and supports the international alumni network.*

For dependents (living expenses for spouse and/or child under 21 years old), the additional expense is U.S. $6,000.00 per dependent per academic year. If you are married and plan to bring your spouse and/or children with you, you must certify additional support for each dependent. (Note: F-2 visa holders are NOT permitted to work under ANY circumstances).

This worksheet is to help you calculate financial support for the first year of your studies. Please note that only the first year of financial support is required for issuance of your form I-20.

Complete both pages of this form and include an Affidavit of Support form from each sponsor with their amount of support to equal the total amount of $43,686.00. Affidavits from each sponsor must be attached. All verification of support must be dated no more than one year from the time of document submission. IPC will verify that you have the required amount to issue the form I-20 (F-1).
